- Diversity, Inclusion and Bias 101: Awareness to Action

TERRACE BALLROOM C & D

Moderator: James Pogue, Ph.D. CEO | JP Enterprises

Measuring Progress. Improving Performance. Increase Productivity. Hear the latest research around Bias and its impact in the workplace and clarify the connection between Diversity, inclusion, Bias and organization success. Outcomes: Understand the Business Case and Value Propositions connected to Diversity, Inclusion and Unconscious Bias. Learn the best practices for leading change during uncomfortable times with sensitive topics.

- Thriving with a $17 Minimum Wage!

TERRACE BALLROOM A & B

Speakers: Charles Musgrove Founder | capserv360

Chad Mackay CEO | Fire & Wine Hospitality

How can the Full-Service Restaurant thrive with tipped minimum wage scheduled to increase 116% through 2026? Learn how a multi-unit independent restaurant owner from Seattle, WA has thrived in the era where minimum wage has increased to nearly $17 dollars/hour today and on the way to $18. Over six years ago Chad Mackay and his restaurant group Fire & Vine Hospitality changed their compensation model that would chart a course for long-term success. The pivot changed the focus from minimum wage increases to a focus on sales. His team implemented a COMMISSION base pay for servers and bartenders, combined with a service charge. The result has been happy employees (well paid), returning customers and increasing profits for the restaurant owners. According to Chad, $15 per hour is so yesterday. With the success of this plan and the benefits it provides the employees and owners, Chad and his partners asked themselves, 'why didn't we do this sooner'? Check out this session for great tips about the commission plan and why this should be an option you consider now rather than later.
