Johnson & Wales University Charlotte invites high school culinary teachers to the Culinary Skills and Education Summit, July 2021. This professional development experience will provide hands-on learning and skill development with JWU chef instructors as well as educational information from the College of Food Innovation & Technology. Tentative agenda includes:

- Monday, 7/26: Advanced culinary and baking/pastry preparation techniques
- Tuesday, 7/27: Sustainable food systems & applied food science hands on learning experiences, bake shop finishing techniques, beverage tasting event
- Wednesday, 7/28: Garde Manger principles, techniques and preparation

Hotel Information: For your convenience, rooms are available (Sunday-Wednesday) for $99/night at the Doubletree Hotel by Hilton on the JWU campus, directly across from the JWU Academic Center. Participants are responsible for their lodging and transportation costs. Please reserve your room here.

Plan to bring: Participants should bring/wear their culinary uniform (close-toed shoes, jacket, pants, hat) for the day sessions and casual clothing for non-instructional time.

CEUs: Participants will receive a certificate of attendance, agenda, and suggested contact hours. Educators will need to refer to their local school and state guidelines for CEU submission and approval. The estimated instructional time is 18 contact hours (1.8 CEU).

Please register no later than June 30. A detailed agenda will be emailed to registrants on July 1. If you have any questions regarding the summit, please contact Mandy Hines at 336-395-4701 or mandy.hines@jwu.edu.
