

Dear School Administrator/ Instructor:

The Broward Chapter of the Florida Restaurant and Lodging Association is pleased to once again present an opportunity to recognize student achievements in support of their education in hospitality. This year we have expanded the categories to include College and University level students.

We will award scholarships in the amount of $2,000.00 per student to High school, College or University students in pursuit of culinary, hospitality or tourism industries, based on each student's achievements, GPA and essay. Scholarship checks will be made payable to the educational institution upon submission of proof of registration and student ID number.

Eligible students must be either at the senior level in high school, or any level in college or university pursuing education in an eligible program. They must have a cumulative grade point average of 2.75 or higher on a 4.0 scale (unweighted GPA).

Eligible students will be further matched with either a hospitality mentor or internship based on availability through FRLA Broward Chapter.

Please complete the following and return to the Florida Restaurant & Lodging Association South Florida. The deadline to be received is at 5:00 pm on Friday April 05, 2024.

Sincerely,

Rozeta Mahboubi, Broward Chapter Director
FRLA Broward Board of Directors & Education Committee
